

NSW State Archives have placed digitised copies of Bounty passenger lists online.

This link goes to the first page for the Catherine Jamieson.

Other details of life in Port Phillip are being sought

They came by the 'Catherine Jamieson' as Self-funded and as Bounty Immigrants in 1841

The first trip by the "Catherine Jamieson" sailed, from Leith, had Messrs Allan and Son and Messrs Adamson and Co as the official agents. They left left Scotland from Kirkalldy Roads Leith, on 28 June 1838 and reached South Australia on 1 December 1838, after a journey of 5 months.

Catherine Jamieson

arrived 22 Oct 1841, barque 451 tons, Captain William Hutchinson master, from Leith (near Edinburgh) Scotland 29 May 1841 to Port Phillip. The importer was Mr Robert Howe of Sydney. Fiche 5 Page 137 aImages 77-82, pages notes
